Dear Parent / Guardian,

Year 13 pupils will move to official study leave from today. This means that their normal timetable has been collapsed, and they are only required to attend exam classes as agreed with their subject teacher. Attached below is a revision timetable which shows additional intensive revision sessions which have been scheduled, often the day before a GCSE examination in each subject. Attendance to all relevant sessions up until the day of their actual exam will support pupils to maximise outcomes.

If pupils have not received a copy of their individual examination timetable, hard copies are available at the school office. They should familiarise themselves with exam dates, times and the location of each examination. From the 20th- 29th May, timetabled lessons and revision sessions will change slightly to accommodate the KS3 exams.

When pupils come into school to attend a revision session, it is necessary for them to wear their full school uniform and sign in and out at the front office. If pupils arrive before a revision session begins, they can use 6th form study, which will be open as usual each day.

When in school to complete an examination, they must strictly adhere to the following rules:

- Full school uniform MUST be worn.
- Pupils must be fully informed regarding the location and time of their examinations.
- Mobile phones or digital watches are not permitted in the examination hall.
- Pupils must come fully equipped for all examinations - this will include pens, pencils, ruler, rubber, sharpener, and mathematical equipment.
- Water bottles must have the labels removed.

Year 13 pupils will be required to attend a full day session (9am – 3pm) in June as shown below. During this time, they will focus on activities designed to support their next steps after sixth form. This will give pupils the opportunity to investigate pathways such as university, F.E. college and apprenticeships with guidance and support from careers staff. This is a valuable part of preparing students for post year 14.

Form class	Date
13A1	Wednesday 17 th June
13A2	Thursday 18 th June

We wish our year 13 pupils the very best of luck in their upcoming examinations. Results will be available in school on Thursday 13th August, 2026.

Kind Regards,

Mrs. Mullan
Principal
